TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Paris 26th.—The political situation is growing worse daily, owing to the difficulties experienced by the prominent public men called on by President Carnot to reorganize the Cabinet. Political circles were surprised at M. Rouvier's declaration that he was unable to form a new Cabinet. The name of M. Bourgeois, who is the last appealed to, inspires confidence in the result, and he is warmly supported by the Radicals.

Berlin, 26th. Several thousand laborers out of work met in a public square yesterday and resolved to march in procession to the Emperor's palace headed by Socialists. The police were advised and endeavored to dissolve the meeting, but in vain; at the palace the guards were reinforced, ready for action, and later on the police came up with rifles also. The troops and the police opened fire upon the people from all sides, wounding seventy who were taken to hospital; about one hundred arrests were made. The city is much excited by these events. There are advices of similar excesses at Brunswick where the police drew their swords on the people; numerous arrests reported.

The men out of work in Dantzig are in a terrible state of destitution.

Rome, 26th—It is said that the Pope is preparing for the anniversary of his coronation a speech in which he maintains his claims on Rome.

Cairo 26th.—Great preparations are being made to receive Eyoub Pasha, the Sultan's envoy.

The British garrison has been reinforced.

Madrid 26th.—The Duchess of Montpensier is dangerously ill in Seville.

The Pope has sent her his apostolic benediction.

Vienna 26th.—Negotiations have begun for commercial reciprocity between Austria and the United States.

Constantinople 26th.—Dr. Vulcovitch, Bulgarian agent here, when going to his hotel last night was stabbed by an unknown person in the left side. Fortunately the wound was not mortal. The assassin escaped.

Paris 26th.—Over 5,000 people were present last night at the Ball given by President and Madame Carnot at the Elysée.

London, 26th—Despatches from Upper Burmah bring fresh details of the engagements between the British troops and the natives. Captain Davies after a sanguinary encounter dislodged the garrison at Sardono. Four natives were killed and 26 wounded during the fray. Captain Davies will attack tomorrow the positions which were seized by the Cachichones and from which they kept up a steady fire on fort Sardono.

Malta 26th.—The naval court held over the loss of the H. M. S. Victoria has found Capt. Bourke free of all blame, but recommends him to be more careful in the future.

Berlin 26th.—Part of the Heiligenberg tunnell fell in and buried several of the workmen.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

In most countries it is usual when a person dies suddenly and under mysterious circumstances to institute a public enquiry, and this is known in England as a Coroner's Inquest. Some thirty years ago we got up an agitation in the columns of this paper to that end, which met with the warm approval of Don Norberto Riestra, General Mitre and Don Emilio Castro, but nothing came of it.

We are now forcibly impressed with the necessity for some institution of this kind by the mysterious affair which took place at Villa Devoto a few days ago. A beautiful girl of 21 years, who had been out riding the previous day, was found dead in her bed on Sunday morning. Next day the body had become quite black, and swollen so prodigiously that the belief was general that she had been poisoned. Nevertheless the police authorities took no action, and at last on Wednesday the remains were interred at the Chacarita without any post-mortem examination.

It is rumored that the poor girl was to receive shortly an inheritance of 4,000$, and this circumstance adds to the suspicious character of the affair. The neighbors say that the supposed mother is not the girl's real mother, which makes matters worse. The Nacion gives some still more damning details as follows:—

"We published in our last the news—received by telephone in the early hours of the morning—of a dead body being without burial in Villa Devoto. We received yesterday a letter informing us that the dead body was not that of a child, but of a lady, and not of a poor family. The young lady was a relative of a Judge in La Plata. She was "enceinte" when she came to Villa Devoto, and, the letter adds, it does not look as if she died a natural death.

"As soon as we received this letter, we sent a reporter to Villa Devoto to obtain as many particulars as possible. On alighting from the train our reporter had the good fortune to meet Mr. Dermidio Latorre, who has built a beautiful country-house in this suburb, and Mr. Mariano Andrade, who kindly volunteered to act as cicerones. These gentlemen conducted our representative to the hut occupied by the "little old woman," a structure of sombre appearance, with one door.

"The old woman, not a bit put about, came out and invited the three gentlemen to go through the hut. She said she had read what the papers published about the affair, and she laughed at the suggestions made, for she was a fond mother; that the body of her daughter had not been buried until after considerable delay, when the worms had begun to eat it up, as she could not obtain a medical certificate for the burial. She pointed to the table where she had placed the body. On the wall there was a portrait of the deceased, who, according to all accounts, was a very fine young woman: tall, somewhat stout, with blue eyes and fair hair. She was clever - was a normal school-teacher and spoke several languages. She was of a very jovial character. She came to Villa Devoto four months ago accompanied by her mother. Her great delight was horse-riding. Villa Devoto is a beautiful spot, a veritable garden of Eden, very little known. Here and there you see splendid country houses. It is a small place and every one knows his neighbour. So that it was with stupefaction and consternation that the residents learned that the lively girl that they had seen riding about the day before had died during the night. But there was more to surprise the people of Devoto. The body of the girl, which was placed on a table, presented several stains of violet hue. This was suspicious. The once-beautiful body began to decompose rapidly and soon was a monstrous mass of putrid flesh, impossible to recognise. What was the cause of her death? That is a question for the police to decide. The mother did not shew much grief at the death of her daughter. She says she lost the certificates of death, and she gets troubled when asked about them. There's a mystery here surely. Deceased was known as Elvira Benza. She was 21 years old when she died—in the flower of youth, and just as she was expecting a legacy of $4,000, which was to be handed to her on the completion of her majority. The day before the burial, the mother placed the body outside, exposed to flies and the heat of the sun. Benjamina Benza is the name of the old woman who did this. Her want of grief inspires suspicion. She did not shed a tear. She can't say what her daughter died of. She says that Dr. Aurrecochea, Judge in La Plata, was Elvira's tutor.

"Benjamina is so disliked in Villa Devoto that people boycott her, refusing to sell her anything, in order to compel her to leave the place. Elvira was buried in the Chacarita, and it is probable the body will disinterred for examination."

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

There's a storm already brewing in the Mendoza Legislature. The Liberals, in spite of their promises and their pact, are beginning to shew exclusive tendencies. The Orteguistas, who are supposed to hold the trump cards, smile at all this, for without them the Liberals can't go very far. However, we hope the incipient symptoms of discord will soon disappear, in presence of the graver problems to be solved. The Interventor did not remain long in San Juan. The Andes, we see, attacks him in bitter language. The Interventor left yesterday for B. Ayres.

Telegrams from Rio Cuarto state that the manager of the Adela Colony, Juarez Celman district, has been playing Old Harry with the colonists. This functionary, with the help of the police, has taken possession of a very high percentage of wheat belonging to the hard-working settlers. Any colonists resisting is thrown into prison. This sounds like the eleventh century. The telegrams add that the Administrator has several wagon-loads of the ill-gotten grain at Camerillo Station. In the meantime what are the authorities doing? Probably discussing the presidential question, for we note that the Santa Fe Governor is on a visit to his great and good friend in Cordoba, and both are closeted every day for hours and hours.

Diphtheria is causing havoc amongst the infant population in Rosario. This is a zymotic or filth disease, so that it may be inferred that the Rosario Municipality are not looking after the health of the town. The disease is most virulent in the "conventillos" or low tenement houses.

Our exchanges from La Plata contain the particulars of the murder of one of the prison-guards. These particulars are supplied by the widow of the unfortunate man. Her exposition is as follows: "At 4 o'clock this morning (Thursday,) my husband, of the 1st Company, who had been on guard, was relieved. Sub Lieut. Abraham Espindola of the 2nd Company, met him, and thinking that he had unduly absented himself, he rebuked him. My husband protested, and the Sub Lieut. ordered him to throw down his arms and, then unsheathing his sword, proceeded to strike him with the flat. My husband endeavored to avoid the blows and made an effort to throw his arms round the Sub Lieut, who immediately plunged his sword into the stomach of my husband, who fell to the ground. The Sub Lieut. continued flogging him. My husband was carried away dying. He expired to-day at 11 o'clock. My husband was barbarously murdered. The Sub Lieut. tried to escape but was caught. He is at present under arrest."

The unfortunate woman, who is thrown on her own weak resources by this barbarous crime, appeals to the press to take up her cause and assure the punishment of the criminal.

OUR PARIS CORRESPONDENT.

LETTER FOR LADIES.

Paris, January 25th.

It requires very little to be elegant and very little not to be so; further, elegance lies in choice not in profusion. This is especially true of hats when there exists a veritable rage for heavy trimmings; the latter can be composed of feathers, beads, ribbons and velvets. In point of color the principal ornament ought to harmonize with the toilette. Strings are generally worn long; veils are broad, falling gracefully from the brim while being gathered behind. The Scotch toque is in cloth and in vogue for children and young ladies; it is composed of the same cloth as the robe, embroidered with brilliant pearls, bordered with curled marabout, and vertical feathers for ornament. The felt hats continue to be large and the capotes "miniscules."

For cloth costumes fur is the favorite trimming; it is applied to the bottom of dresses, around the neck and on the sleeves. Often at the bottom of the collar a bow of velvet ribbon is placed with the long ribbons falling nearly to the ground, recalling the once "suivez-moi jeune-homme." Jackets are profusely trimmed with fur, sable being preferred, and next other. Bows are chiefly in feathers. Young ladies have a leaning for the long jacket opening on a bright colored satin blouse. Mantles are voluminously trimmed with furs or feathers.

For town and walking toilettes rough woolen materials are very much worn; shades of brown and blue are the colors most in favor. Skirts are made long and close-fitting; the under-skirt has been discarded in favor of a silk lining for the skirt. When the jupe is fastened to the bodice a girdle is worn; this arrangement only suits slender waists. The tendency, however, is to make the corsage more roomy. Sleeves are still puffy but less high at the shoulder, the vertical collar tends to disappear, to make way for the more popular ruche.

Square-toe shoes are reappearing but the lovers of pointed-toes protest against the change. Soiree shoes are in satin, in the same material as the dress or in patent or morroco leather, all more or less embroidered or slashed with gold; or in fancy open work and straps. The black silk stocking has overcome all competitors; the white made a forlorn hope rush to supersede it but failed. Kid gloves are only worn now and generally of a bright shade. White is reserved for the theatre and ceremonies.

I have already drawn attention to the active part that French ladies have of late taken in the betterment of social ills. They are now taking in hand the female servants question, which bristles with injustices and evils. Servant's Registry offices in Paris are simply dens of iniquity, conducted on no principle of responsibility, and in supplying a family with a servant, they supply but too often an agent of demoralization. A group of ladies are organizing registry offices that will not be only under their auspices, but worked by them. No fees will be charged applicants, and only a small donation will be expected from mistresses if satisfied with the servant recommended. The servants of Paris differ from those of the provinces as day does from night, though the latter is the great nursery ground for the supply. They soon change after a short residence in the capital; then they are exposed to much moral deterioration by the habit of relegating the rooms of both sexes to the attic corridors of the houses where they are engaged.

The temperament of French servant girls is in their favor; they are sober, frugal, gay-tempered, not difficult about food, and not grumblers about work. They are very intelligent, and proficient in general household duties. Treat them with kindness and good humor, and they will give no annoyance; treat them overbearingly, or as "mean whites," they will soon show you that in legal rights they stand on a footing of equality with you. Only eight days' notice is necessary on both sides to part company; paying or forfeiting a week's wages, and the separation may take place instanter. You are bound by law to give the leaving servant a certificate, and though her sins be as scarlet, it is rare where the certificate does not whitewash them. Thus, dismissed to-day, she will find a new place to-morrow—if able to pay the registry office fee. This they can ever do, as servant girls from the age of 18 commence to save, either in view of marriage, or as a provision for their declining years; hence why they have shares in railways, buss companies, government stock, and not unfrequently alas in Panama bubbles. How many Anglo-Saxon servant girls attain that position?

An association has been formed of Female Type Writers—women printers are very common; they not only execute all kinds of machine-writing but instruct girls and train them for situations in railway and commercial offices, amanuenses etc. Many ladies find employment in wood and photo engraving for periodicals, and of late drawing fashion plates for litography. I notice a new class of dress-maker coming into existence; she who goes to the houses of ladies to make alterations in costumes purchased ready made at the monster shops and that deal only in that class of toilette. There are even professional cutters that will cut out your own material for a gown, mantle, or redingote, for a small fee, when the dress-maker can do the rest; trimming to be what purse can afford. An economy of 25 per cent is by this plan effected, and which is not to be despised in this "nothing to wear" period.

France constructs a great many miles of railway for Spain, and in return Spanish ladies capture the hearts of the French engineers, to the chagrin of the latter's family. Some years ago, M. Eiffel narrowly escaped being thus captured by a fair Andalusian. All this will explain why married engineers are only now sent to Spain.

In Italy, when a marriage takes place in a princely family, the bride and groom, "after" the religious ceremony present themselves to the Pope to receive his benediction. Then the young couple, in wedding costume, proceed to St. Peter's alone, and, kneeling on the bare flags before the statue of the Prince of the Apostles, pray. Such was the case in the late Barberini marriage.

Gentlemen have now their portrait printed, in addition to their crest, on their writing-paper. Perhaps ladies may yet imitate the Comtesse de Castellane, who had her coat-of-arms painted on her ball dresses.

The Paris milliners and dress-makers have received a severe blow by the famine in Russia. They counted upon many orders the consequence of the Russo-French alliance and the Moscow Exhibition. Several Paris establishments sent out representatives with samples of materials to call on the families of boyards and take instructions. They were very successful, but hardly back in Paris when the orders were requested to be cancelled. Even the Empress of Russia herself gave the example, to economize all for the starving moujiks. The Empress, like her sister the Princess of Wales, has a weakness for "chiffons;" she dresses more richly, but not more tastefully than the Princess; she surpasses however the latter in her love for balls and dancing. With all her power, one heart-wish the Empress cannot see realized; the marriage of her son with one of her nieces, daughter of the Princess of Wales.

A lady has just related to me a curious item of news. The Duc d'Aumale, who is now childless and enormously rich, pays all the makers, milliners etc. bills, run up in Paris by his two grand nieces, the Queen of Portugal and the Princess Wladmir of Denmark. Perhaps since the days of Queen Elizabeth, no ladies have ever been more extravagant in wardrobe glories than the royalties in question.

REVELATIONS IN LONDON.

A DEAL WITH MESSRS. MURRIETA AND CO.

(From the "Financial News.")

A committee was appointed on the 16th ult. to inquire into the transactions of the Imperial Investment Corporation, Limited, to consider the best means of dealing with the situation and to report to the adjourned meeting of the 27th inst. The committee has held twelve meetings, in the course of which the chairman, directors and several other gentlemen have attended to give information, and the following report is the result of their deliberations:—

"The books and papers of the corporation have been freely placed at the disposal of the committee. The prospectus is dated November 21, 1889, and it was therein announced that the subscription list would close on before the 30th of that month. Upon December 2, 1889, 54,904 shares of £10 each had been taken—a result which apparently was disappointing to the directors, as it was not certain that the sum subscribed would be sufficient to qualify the corporation for a Stock Exchange quotation, which they thought it important to secure. Under these circumstances, a broker who had taken an active part in the promotion of the corporation had, on December 13, an interview with the board, and informed them that in the event of the corporation buying, from a list which he submitted, securities to a very considerable amount, he would procure a subscription for 12,000 shares. The securities comprised in the list were mostly South American issues of Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co. The board, it is stated, considered the list, declined to take some of the stock proffered, and finally gave an order for the purchase of the following securities, at a cost amounting to £252,571, which were bought within market quotations from Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co. The applications of Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co. were thereupon sent in, and the 12,000 shares were allotted to members of that firm on December 17:—

£15,000 Costa Rica Government 'A' Five per Cent Bonds.
£10,000 Entre Rios Provincial Government Six per Cent 1886 Bonds.
£25,000 Entre Rios Provincial Government Six per Cent 1888 Bonds.
£10,000 Entre Rios Provincial Government Central Railway Six per Cent Mortgage Bonds.
£10,000 Entre Rios Provincial Government Central Railway Extension Bonds.
£20,000 Argentine Northern Central Railway Extension Five per Cent Government Mortgage Bonds.
£20,000 Santa Fe and Western Central Colonies Railway Five per Cent Mortgage Bonds.
£20,000 Interoceanic Railway of Mexico Six per Cent Debenture Bonds.
£15,000 Interoceanic Railway of Mexico Seven per Cent Preference (1,500 shares of £10 each).
£5,000 Bieckert's Brewery Five per Cent Debentures.
£10,000 Bieckert's Brewery (500 shares of £20 each).
£20,000 Chignecto Marine Transport Five per Cent Mortgage Railway Debentures.
£20,000 Chignecto Marine Seven per Cent Preference (1,000 shares of £20 each).
£20,000 Cordoba Central Northern Section Railway Stock.
£7,500 Electricity Supply for Spain (1,500 shares of £5 each).
£5,000 Costa Rica Railway Six per Cent Second Debentures.

"A small portion of these securities was afterwards realised at a loss; but the bulk is still the property of the Corporation, and shows a shrinkage of value of £114,357 12s as between the price at which the purchase was made and the medium Stock Exchange quotation of December 31, 1891. It will be seen that the greater part of the depreciation in the corporation's property is attributable to this purchase, and your committee, while fully recognising the difficulty of foreseeing, at the end of 1889, the collapse of Argentine credit and the depreciation of Argentine securities which followed on the events of 1890, cannot but condemn the purchase as a very unwise one, involving as it did an investment of a large proportion of the corporation's capital in a particular class of securities not of the safest kind.

"Early in January, 1890, a loan of £10,000 was made by the corporation on the security of £12,000 North-Western Argentine Railway deferred shares for a fixed period of six months, the shares being then quoted 8-9. The loan was, therefore, without cover, nor was any provision made for cover being taken in the event of a depreciation in the shares. When the loan fell due the borrower was unable to make repayment, and the shares are now quoted 2-3, showing a loss on this particular transaction of about £7000. Your committee have examined the contracts for the various purchases, but have not been able to investigate the history of all the investments which have been made by the corporation, nor could they within reasonable compass present the results of such investigation. They have, however, prepared a list of the securities held by the corporation, with their cost price, their value on October 31st last and on December 31st last. This list, the preparation of which has necessarily required considerable care, has been printed, and will be available, should the shareholders so decide, for distribution at the meeting, and subsequently for circulation to members of the corporation. It is right, however, in any case, that the proprietors should know that on October 31st last interest was in default upon about £100,000 of the corporation securities, taken at cost price; that interest unpaid had been funded on about £40,000 more; that in respect of a further capital value of about £40,000 dividend had been passed, and that on a further sum of about £25,000 no dividend had ever been paid; so that at that date a total of about $205,000 of the invested capital was not yielding any return. Since that date the Standard Bank of Australia, in which the corporation holds 2,000 shares at £5 each, has suspended payment; the coupons of 10,000 debentures of the Manila Railway Company have not been met, and the dividends due this month in respect of $20,000 Chignecto preference shares have not been paid. Provision will also have to be made for calls to a possible amount of £3,000 on 285 shares in the English Bank of the River Plate, which is in liquidation.

"The committee have given careful consideration to the board's proposal for the reconstruction of the corporation; but, after full discussion of the legal and commercial aspects of the question, they are unable to recommend its acceptance, as it is not only exposed to the risk of failing to secure, in the first instance, the necessary support from the shareholders, but might also practically be wrecked at a later stage by dissentient shareholders exercising their right to be paid off under Section 161 of the Act of 1862, and the committee have been informed that several large shareholders would adopt that course. Under the whole circumstances, the committee recommend the less costly plan of reducing capital in the ordinary way by special resolution. Your committee, have gone carefully into the matter, and in their judgment the permanent loss may certainly be put at not less than £134,898, or 50 per cent. and they, therefore, consider that the capital should be reduced by that sum. The committee, therefore, unanimously recommend.:

"(1.) That a new board be appointed, consisting of not more than five members, at remuneration not exceeding £1,200 per annum; of which the chairman should receive £400.

"(2.) That the capital of the corporation be reduced by such sum as the new board shall determine.

"(3.) That for this purpose a special meeting be summoned as soon as may be found practicable.

"(4.) That immediately after the reduction of capital the accrued cumulative dividend up to October 31 last be paid to the preferred stockholders.

"Your obedient servants,
Frank H. Evans, Chairman.
E. Bond, E. R. Bourke, E. Clarke, W. Cotton, F. Gerich, C. S. de Pothonier."

CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

Buenos Ayres 26th.

On Saturday evening, the annual general meeting of the Mutual Aid Society was held for the purpose of naming the new committee for 1892.

The work done during 1891 may be summed up as follows:—Medical assistance had been rendered to 237 members out of the total number of 562. The number of members stands at 562, shewing an increase of 262 over 1890. The death of 5 members is greatly lamented, and 19 members left the country.

The total receipts for the year amounted to $13,789 including donations. The expenditure was $8,740; this includes $1,643 for doctor's fees, $2,142 for medicine, $542 for assistance in money, $187 paid to hospitals and $274 for funeral expenses, leaving a balance in favor of the Society of $5,048. Great thanks are due to the retiring Committee for the excellent way in which they steered the society through the many difficulties of this year.

The following are the names of the newly elected committee, and they will have to work hard to keep the Society in the same condition as has been achieved by the retiring Committee.

President: Julian Nogueras,
Vice do: Lucas Tink.
Treasurer: F. R. Guppy,
Pro. do: R. Larralde,
Secretary: Justo Lavandera,
Pro. do: Luis Urzi.

Members: M. G. Marengo, M. Romero, R. Puertos, R. Bird, M. Rivero, D. Bustos, A. Casanovas, J. Roca and Lucio Moreira; the audit committee being constituted of Messrs. G. Horrocks, A. Albornoz, and J. B. Piaggi. The Secretariat of the Society is situated in Central Station.

BRITISH AND AMERICAN BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

MR. MELTON PRIOR'S LECTURE.

Mr. Editor,

In reply to your correspondents, "The Public," "Integrity" and "Fair Play," I have to state, in the name of the Committee, that Mr. Melton Prior was solicited to lecture on behalf of the Society, and the usual professional terms were arranged, resulting in Mr. Prior receiving $570, being 50 % of value of tickets presented at the door, less one-half of the expenses. The Society benefitted to the extent of $777, owing to donations at the door, $100 of which was given by Mr. John Brown, the tailor, terms cash, corner of Piedad and San Martin.

The annual general meeting was postponed to-day until 7th March, owing to want of a quorum.

I am, Sir,
Yours obediently
Ronald Bridgett.
Hon. Sec.

SILENCE GIVES CONSENT.

February 26th.

Mr. Editor.

In no case is the above more applicable than in the action, or I might say non-action, of the Committee of the B. & A. Benevolent Society in regard to the "Mr. Melton Prior Charity question"; and I think the British Community can take it for granted that the proceeds of the lecture were disposed of in the manner already imputed; "Half for you, half for me, and all for Charity;" if this were not so, surely the gentlemen on the above named Committee would have at once come forward and denied, what in that case would have been an unwarrantable scandal, but which as it is, they lead us to believe is only too true. And a word with yourself, Mr Editor, while wishing to thank you for the part-insertion of my last letter, I hope you will in the present case not find anything "too dreadfully true" as to need omission, for remember even "the truth is sometimes unpleasant" though "honesty is the best policy."

Yours etc.
Integrity.

Editor's Note. We know nothing of the matter, except that it was stated in a letter to our paper that Mr. Melton Prior gave his services gratuitously.

CLEARY'S LONDON OPERA COMPANY.

February, 25th.

Mr. Editor.

Before leaving this city I wish to thank the many patrons of my enterprise, through your columns, for the cordial support they have given us during this season of crisis and hot weather;

For the assistance accorded by yourself and your confreres accept my deepest gratitude.

Allow me also through your columns to thank Mr. Tomba and his excellent artists, also Mr. Carlo and his children for the contributions that helped to make my benefit such an enormous success.

I hope that it will be my privilege to again try to deserve the pleasure and the applause of the many friends myself and my Company have made in Buenos Ayres.

Yours truly
Edwin Cleary.

BUENOS AIRES CRICKET CLUB AND THE OPEN LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Mr. Editor,

Rule No. 26 of the B. A. C. C. states: "All decisions of Committee shall be deemed conclusive and at once acted on until they have been reversed by a vote of a special general meeting."

As a general meeting has been called, no doubt this vexed question of an Open Tennis Tournament will be decided, and therefore it is not my intention to express an opinion as to who is right in the interpretation of the rules cited by "An Old Committee Man".

The letter from 'Palermo' of this morning is, I consider, bad form; and I am sure none of the opponents of the Open Tennis Tournament wish to knock Tennis on the head. I think the difficulties might be met by holding the usual Club Tournament with a Ladies' Competition, the latter to be played on Thursdays, the day courteously allotted by the Committee to the fair sex. The final ties for all to be played on any day fixed by the Committee.

Yours truly,
An old Captain of the B.A.C.C.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Inspector-General has issued a report urging the Board of Public Works to throw out the plans presented by the Pacific Railway of plant ordered for the line. The Inspector-General gives a variety of reasons for his opinion and calls attention to the circumstance that the Company ordered the plant before presenting the plans. The Company have, we understand, 15 kilometres of the new plant.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Every man who owns even a shabby umbrella is praying with more or less fervour for rain. Summer has lasted too long, and there is a general conviction that something has gone wrong with the Zodiac. Estancieros say that, with the prolonged drought, the fall in prices, ditto in the gold premium, and general snag-up, life is not worth living.

The new theatre which Mr. Luis Ghiglione is erecting on the ruins of the San Martin is now nearly finished. It is a very neat building and when finished will be a little gem. The pit, halls and lobbies are very much larger than in the old theatre, and the works are being carried out under the most careful supervision. The new theatre will be ready by the 25th of May, when Signor Tomba, with a reinforced troupe, will inaugurate it. The genial empresario, seated on some bricks, like Marius on the ruins of Carthage, may be occasionally seen watching the masons at work. Mr. Tomba is of opinion that the resuscitated San Martin will be perfect from a theatrical as well as an architectural point of view. The public will be able to judge for themselves on the glorious 25th of May.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column of the Hurlingham Polo Races and Games on Monday 29th inst. There will be no special train, as the attendance at recent meetings has not been such as to warrant the Committee incurring the expense of a special. The 1.15 train will arrive in time for the second race, and those going by the 10.10 train will see the cricket match v. Quilmes.

One of the most interesting lectures delivered in Buenos Ayres for some years was that of Don Gomez de Teran, last night at the rooms of the Sociedad Cientifica, Calle Victoria. The subject was the Influence of Science on Industry, and was ably handled by the lecturer, who has travelled much, especially in South America.

We are happy to learn that Madame Farnes's school at Chascomus is likely to prove a great success, the town folk rejoicing to have so accomplished and experienced a teacher among them.

The letters published in another column throw light on Mr. Melton Prior's lecture: the public feels that it is a case which will not stand repetition.

Dr. Donovan, Chief of Police, went to Villa Devoto yesterday to make enquiries into the suspicious death of a beautiful young girl to which we refer in another column.

We are requested to call attention to the fact that there will be morning service only in the Scotch Church tomorrow, and no service at Barracas Presbyterian Church.

We received several kind invitations to Carnival balls in the different theatres yesterday; but the weather is so unbearably warm and stuffy that we do not feel equal to any Terpsychorean exercise. By the way, our upside-down barometer is steady as a rock at "Very Dry," and this portends a thundering wet Carnival.

The Bitter Cry of Outcast Cocktails is heard in the city, and the reason why is a sudden failure of the supply of genuine Angostura Bitters, the result being the appearance of such Bitter frauds that respectable cocktails refuse to associate with them, and the cocktailing public mourn and refuse to be comforted.

Mr. Lundstrom, the now well known Swedish photographer, has enriched our gallery with a photo of our chief editor, one of the best specimens of his art we have ever seen in any country, from Ballyshannon to Bagdad, from Buenos Ayres to Boston. He requests us to say that all the photographs he has taken of the Literary Society, the STANDARD, La Plata etc. can be "Found" on sale at the "English", in Calle Cangallo.

The frigate Shah has just been sent to Bermuda to do duty as a store-hulk. It seems strange that the only British war-ship that has been engaged in a sea fight with a hostile vessel during the last three decades should so soon terminate her active history in such an inglorious role. The Shah is an iron frigate without armour protection of any kind, yet she caused the Peruvian iron-clad ship Huascar to surrender to her after a short engagement.

To all whom it may concern. Messrs. Murray and Seedorf of Calle Reconquista, the well-known apothecaries, have on sale the Cactus remedy for the Blood which we enquired for yesterday. It is a Brazilian specific of wonderful efficacy, and the pamphlet issued with it is very interesting reading. The New York firm that holds the secret and patent offer £2,000 to anyone who can discover a trace of mineral in the remedy, which is composed solely of Cactus juice and other Brazilian herbs.

The following note from a kind subscriber is interesting:—

"Dear STANDARD,

It may interest the members of the E. L. S. to know, apropos of their trip to the Piedra Movediza of Tandil, that there exists a similar rocking stone in the United States, which is thus described in Maunders' Treasury of Knowledge:—Durham—A town in Stafford county, New Hampshire, U. S., near which is a rock, computed to weigh 60 tons, so exactly poised on another rock as to be moved with the finger.

Rokrab."

Referring to Mr. Lidderdale's annual gammon to the effect that "with careful management" the Baring guarantors will come out all right in the end, Money gives John Bull the same warning which we have felt it our duty to do, more than once. It says:—

"The question which those who are involved in Argentine stocks wish to ask is, What is meant by careful management? Does it suggest that Messrs. Baring Brothers might be careless enough to forget to cash the coupons of the bonds in their boxes, or that the firm must judiciously rig up the market by reassuring rumours, and then "feed out" the securities to the public? In no other way can much "careful management" enter into the matter. The estate has certain assets dependent upon the honesty and solvency of the Argentine Republic. It has got the ore, and all that remains to be seen is how it will pan out."

An esteemed subscriber at Frias writes:—

"Dear STANDARD,

"With regard to your remarks in Editor's Table about detaining letters which are short of stamps, what do you think of keeping a package in B. Ayres because it is short one cent, which is the case in the present instance, as you will see from attached advise note. You ought to "go for" the Post Office people until they change this ridiculous system.

"You can keep the enclosed and give it a prominent place in the STANDARD Museum, as an example of the one-donkey post office we were afflicted with at the end of the 19th century.

Yours etc.,

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, Feb. 26th.

The liquidation began to-day, but the long expected battle did not exceed the proportions of an ordinary speculative skirmish. At an early hour it was very visible that the bears had the advantage, for the bulls were weak all morning. Twenty thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $55.50, fell to 54.80, rose to 55.80, and closed at 55.60, say 244¼ o|o premium. About three thousand sovereigns were sold; the price opened at 17.15 and closed at 17.30, say 243¾ o|o premium. The speculation ruled heavy all morning, and the fortunes of the contest were on the side of the bears.

Patriotic Bonds were dull; the price opened at 61 and closed at 60¾. Spanish Bank shares were quoted at 79, a fall of one point since last operation. French Bank shares changed hands at 29. Catalinas were steady at 7.10. Shares of the Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata were chalked at 61, an advance of one point. La Plata Cedulas were dull and weak.

The exchange market is erratic. A small business was done this morning and rates were quoted at 48d. to 48¼d. on London, according to quality. Discounts showed no improvement.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day;—

The London Economist indulges in the following sarcasm with regard to the financial policy of the Uruguayan Government :—"It certainly cannot be said that the Uruguayan Government are no respecters of persons. Between the home and the foreign creditor they discriminate with a care which the Council of Foreign Bondholders would do well to observe. While the Council are making themselves the intermediary through which great sacrifices are sought to be forced upon the foreign bondholders, the Government are showing a very delicate solicitude for the interests of internal bondholders. The present amount of the internal debt is, it appears, $7,040,000 involving an annual charge of $697,000, distributed between interest and sinking fund thus (000 omitted):—

	Amount of Debt.	Annual Charge. Interest.	Annual Charge. Amortization.
Not bearing interest.....	3271	..	427
Bearing interest at 4 ½..	3769	151	119
	7040	151	546

The whole of this amount it is now proposed to consolidate into a new internal debt of $7,510,000, all of which is to bear interest at 4 per cent, while a sinking fund of 1 per cent is to be provided. In this way the annual charge will be reduced to $375,000, divided between interest and sinking fund as follows :—

Amount of Debt.	Annual Charge. Interest.	Sinking Fund.
7,510,000....	300,000	75,000

Thus, while cutting down the interest on the foreign debt, the Government are absolutely doubling the amount of interest they have now to pay on the internal debt. True, they are very largely curtailing the sinking fund. But if the mere postponement of ultimate redemption is to be regarded as a sufficient reason for increasing the amount of interest payable, the foreign creditors would doubtless be only too pleased to come to a settlement on that basis.

Mr. Herman Meyer was welcomed to-day on his arrival from Bahia Blanca. He reports a very dull state of affairs in that quarter and great losses by the locust invasion. Mr. Arlt was welcomed also to-day, on his arrival from the South of Cordoba: he says that the locusts have caused enormous losses everywhere.

A colleague announces that a deputy of Congress is in the bankrupt court with liabilities to the amount of 4,000,000$%. This is a startling amount.

The French packet Portugal arrived to-day at Montevideo.

The Royal Mail steamer La Plata is expected at Montevideo to-morrow. Owing to quarantine and Carnival, her departure from Buenos Ayres has been postponed to the 4th prox.

The wool market shows no sign of revival. The smash-up continued this morning. A few fine parcels were sold at 8$ and 8.20$ per 10 kilos. Both artistas and consignees are content to look on passively. Small lots arrive daily from the rural parts; butenormous quantities of wool are stored outside. A parcel of 15,000 arrobas of Patagones wool was sold to-day at 5 $ per 10 kilos. The wheat market was dull.

A "lame duck" writes to us :—

"For seven years I speculated steadily for a fall in gold and I had to pay in differences over $350,000.....

"This month I speculated for a rise and I am caught in for $40,000 ; I have handed to my liquidators $35,000 worth of property.....

"The banks have caused the fall in gold this month, by restricting discounts for purposes best known to the respective parties.

"If the bankers are resolved to hoard paper money they may do the country good service by appreciating that paper: but, if the reaection is merely a dodge to make a temporary impression on prices; if the banks are merely hoarding in February to bang away paper in March, the results must be disastrous.. .....Do not confound me with a guttersnipe."

The Iberia left Rio to-day; she is expected at Montevideo on the 1st prox., and is posted to leave on the same day for the West Coast.

Some wheat news was telegraphed from the provinces yesterday. Mr. Jofre's wheat in Bahia Blanca has been sold at 12½ dollars per ten kilos. The directors' report of the National Tobacco Manufactory for the year 1891 was presented to the Shareholders at the annual meeting held on the 22nd instant. It appears that the debt of $446,666, at the end of 1890 has been wiped out. The crisis has not reduced the Company's operations: The sales in 1891 amounted to $1,028,106, being an increase of $262,482. The sales for cash amounted to $434,791. The item of "various debtors" in the balance-sheet of 1891 is less by $81,509 than that of 1891. At the beginning of March, one of the Directors went to Rio Janeiro and closed the business there. The value of the patent of the Bonsack Machine has been fixed at $100,000 m/n !

the patent for the Oriental Republic was sold for $51,500 m/n. It is probable that this year the patents in other South American Republics will be sold. The "profit and loss" account shows a profit of $384,266 m/n, after a moderate valuation of the assets, which are put at $623,551 m/n. Doubtful debts to the amount of $27,096 have been marked off as bad, and the items of "Machinery," "marks," "Castelli building," "Lands" and some others have been reduced by $33,800 m/n. The net profit is therefore $323,379 and the directors consider that, as the Company is free from debts or obligations to interfere with its progress, and as it possesses a fine stock of materials for its operations during many months and a disposable cash balance of $34,102, the sum of $200,000 may with safety be distributed by way of dividend in the following manner.—

2% to the initiator, Mr. Birkenfield, $4000; 4% to the Reserve Fund, $8000; ½ % to the Syndic, $1000; 5% to the Directors, $10,000; 8% to the holders of Founders' shares, equal to $10.66 per certificate, $15,000; 80% to the ordinary shareholders, equal to $20 per share, $160,000. The balance of $123,379 passes to the new account. The Syndic, Mr. Myles A. Pasman, certifies that the directors' report and balance-sheet are correct. The valuation of assets, has, he says, been made at less than market prices. He also approves of the distribution of profits.

What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
